final Meeting in brussels, belgium

VETCAMP partnership met for the last time, in October, in Brussels, Belgium, and all partners were physically represented, except the partner from Greece, who attended the meeting via Skype. The meeting was very productive and successful as it was possible to make a balance of all the activities developed as well as the results produced, namely the pilots whose aim was to test and improve the materials within the Green VET online Campus. It was also an opportunity to start drafting the final project report in a cooperative and collaborative way.
